

Letter from the Board President

What? It's November already? I'm just as baffled as you are, this year has flown by! Now let's finish strong and finish out this great year!

The charity auction was a huge success. While we don't have all the final numbers in yet, we can tell you that the night of the auction proceeds exceeded 2015's total!!! Congratulations to everyone on the auction committee for their hard work and dedication. Now we need all of you to help with the shopping event in December. An application to serve as a volunteer on the shopping night can be found in this newsletter. Please help make a child's Christmas better this year!!

We had a great turn out at our town hall style meeting with the health department and the committee has been working with the department to help improve the implementation and communication of the ordinance. We have made some great progress and the Health Department and they have been very receptive and willing to help make this ordinance work a little smoother. Hopefully soon we will have a new easier to understand summary section on the septic report, that will help us determine Failure, Maintenance issues, and a satisfactory system, it's still our job to communicate with the septic company like before—where the septic company is sending the report, so make sure we communicate just as well. We will keep all posted on our progress! Let's continue to make 2016 the best year ever!

RPAC: Your Best Investment in Real Estate

Since 1969, the REALTORS® Political Action Committee (RPAC) has promoted the election of pro-REALTOR® candidates across the United States. The purpose of RPAC is clear: REALTORS® raise and spend money to elect candidates who understand and support their interests. The money to accomplish this comes from voluntary contributions made by REALTORS®. These are not members' dues; this is money given freely by REALTORS® in recognition of how important campaign fundraising is to the political process. RPAC doesn't buy votes. RPAC enables REALTORS® to support candidates that support the issues that are important to their profession and livelihood.
